24 Cardinals to Rome When Pope Considers Action

Church Newspaper and Fascist Press Suspend Attacks

Pius and Premier Mussolini Silence Papers During Conference

PEACE IS POSSIBLE

Orders to Party Papers May Forecast Conciliatory Policies

ROME, Italy.—(AP)—Twenty-four cardinals conferred with Pope Pius Monday while Premier Mussolini consulted his advisors as the widening breach between the Vatican and the Italian government assumed more serious proportions.

Prospects of a settlement of the difficulties emerged from the conferences when the pontiff directed the editor of Osservatore Romano to discontinue anti-Fascist editorial attacks, and Premier Mussolini ordered the Fascist press to cease its anti-clerical attacks.

This left the field clear for diplomatic negotiations.

Closing Order

The crisis in Italian Catholic affairs was complicated by Mussolini's closing order suspending the activities of Catholic Action Clubs throughout the nation. The pope, in a Vatican address, said that the Catholic Action society "had been and is most precious to him."

The papal newspaper Osservatore Romano meanwhile printed a long list of indignities which the church said it had suffered at the hands of the premier's government. It charged that monasteries had been invaded, priests had been slapped, and that the bishop's palace at Verona had been set on fire by a group of men who drove up in an automobile and sprinkled gasoline on the great door-steps.

Pope Denounces Riots

Pope Pius denounced the recent rioting as "the first proof of an education and entirely given to hate, irreverence and to violence."

"We have not lost one day," he added, "in appreciating the inestimable benefits of the establishment of religious instruction in schools—an education that should also be educational."

Ft. Smith Railroad Into Receivership

General Manager Named Receiver on Petition From Cleveland

FORT SMITH.—(AP)—The Fort Smith & Western Railroad Co., with main offices here, was placed in receivership under orders of Federal Judge Young Monday.

Louis B. Barry, junior vice-president and general manager, was named receiver, with bond of $25,000. The action was taken on application of the Central United National Bank, of Cleveland, which stated it held mortgages on the company's properties to secure the original bonded indebtedness of $3,500,000. The mortgage was executed February 1, 1923.

Baptist Choir in Second Broadcast

Hope Church Singers on Air Sunday from Station KWKH

An hour of music on the air, broadcast from Shreveport by the choir of the First Baptist church of Hope, was enjoyed by radio fans in Hope and throughout the Southwest at 4 o'clock Sunday afternoon.

It was the second appearance of the local choir at station KWKH. Their concert of old-time hymns May 10 having led the station to repeat its invitation last Sunday.

Special receiving sets were installed at the First Baptist church here, and automobile transportation provided for the outsiders of the city, for the benefit of persons not owning radio receivers. A brief vespers service at the church preceded the radio concert.

Yes, There Are No Bananas

BUFFALO, N. Y.—(UP)—The recent suit of the city of Buffalo vs. Michael Ercurio, banana dealer, was dismissed because Detective Victor J. Bickers sat on the evidence.

Ercurio was accused of selling bananas that were "tainted, spoiled, and unfit to eat."

City Court Judge George W. Woltz asked to see the evidence. "Here it is," said Detective Bickers, producing something from a paper bag.

"Are those bananas?" asked the court.

"They were," admitted the detective.

"Case dismissed," said Judge Woltz, "for lack of evidence."

Detective Bickers left for a dry-cleaning establishment humming a certain song about lack of a certain fruit.

Arkansas Crop Outlook Is Better

All Crops Reported to Have Shown Rapid Growth Lately

LITTLE ROCK.—(AP)—T. Roy Reid, assistant director of the Arkansas agricultural extension service, Saturday said crop prospects over the state continue to present a favorable outlook, with the warm weather of the past few days having been beneficial to all growing crops.

With the exception of hail damage to peaches and other fruits in the vicinity of Morrilton a few days ago, there have been no adverse conditions in the past two weeks, Mr. Reid said.

Harvesting of the strawberry crop is nearing completion, Mr. Reid said, adding that estimates place the number of carloads of this crop already shipped from the state at more than 500. Harvesting of other berry and early fruit crops will begin within the next 10 or 15 days, he said.

An unusually large acreage of home gardens is in excellent condition, Mr. Reid said, and continued favorable weather will enable farmers to provide substantial supplies of canned goods and preserved foods for winter consumption.

Pumpkin Seed Is Here For 4-H Boys

R. V. Herndon Asks Kiwanis Prize Entrants to Call for It

Pumpkin seeds, which the Hope Kiwanis club is giving away to boys and girls of the 4-H clubs of Hempstead county, are awaiting callers at Hope Furniture company, Kiwanis President R. V. Herndon announced Monday.

Mr. Herndon asked that all 4-H club members wishing to plant pumpkins this season call immediately and get their seed.

The Kiwanis club mailed out some seed last week, but is holding a quantity for distribution personally. The club will announce prizes this Friday, to be awarded next November, when all the results of the gift seed have been reported.

Negro Children Given Examination

230 Report For Roundup Clinic Held Here Last Week

During Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday evenings of last week at the Baptist church here, Dr. C. M. Lewis and Dr. J. L. Swift gave free medical and dental examinations to 230 children from the local colored schools.

It was found that 65 per cent had some physical defect, the greater amount being enlarged tonsils and adenoids.

This examination which began at 2 o'clock each day, was under the auspices of the local P. T. A. with J. W. Walker as special chairman.

National Cotton Week to Be Aided By Store Displays

Six Hope Firms Have Already Announced Their Co-Operation

NEW WEAVE, COLOR Piece Goods, Dresses and Hose to Feature Local Stocks

National Cotton Piece-Goods Week will be observed in Hope and Hempstead county, this week, with special attractions at all local stores, emphasizing the value of cotton goods to the shopper and the value of improved cotton markets, to the South.

Among the local firms which have already announced their intention to push the Cotton Piece Goods features this week are:

Geo. W. Robinson & Co., Patterson's Department Store, L. C. Burr & Co., J. C. Penney & Co., Montgomery Ward & Co., and Ladies Specialty Shop.

All this week Hope merchants will display cotton piece goods, cotton dresses, hose and other apparel, to bring back to the public's mind that cotton was the original foundation of durable and attractive garments, and is still the cheapest, most durable product, and best value that the shopper's dollar can buy.

New colors, new weaves, and the styling that Southern mill experts created a sensation with at last winter's style shows, will be on view all this week. This is King Cotton's first bid for style, and the experts say it is bringing back sales of cotton goods faster than any other department store and specialty shop item.

Members of the Business and Professional Women's clubs will observe the week by appearing in cotton dresses at their weekly luncheon Tuesday night at the Barlow. Similar action is to be taken by the women of other Hempstead county communities.

Southern business men who are aiding Cotton Piece Goods week have pointed out that the automobile industry, with its increased use of cotton in the manufacture of tires, has greatly aided the cotton industry, but that it remains for Southern shoppers to show their loyalty by purchasing more of the South's great staple in dress material, for which cotton is most famous.

Grounded Ship to Be a Total Loss

Steamship Settles Deep Into Sand, Main Deck Under Water

LOS ANGELES.—(AP)—Although all passengers are safe, concern was expressed in messages from salvage operators Sunday that the coastwise steamer Harvard, aground since early Saturday at Point Arguello, north of here, may become a total loss.

All but one of the vessel's holds appeared to be punctured, the ship has settled deep into the sand and the aft main deck is under five feet of water, according to a radio message from R. B. Gardner, in charge of salvaging operations.

Gardner, wirelessing from the Peacock, one of the three tugs standing by, declared the Harvard "will not stand any bad weather."

Salvageable cargo was being transferred Sunday from the stricken vessel to the tugs. Several days probably will elapse before an effort can be made to float the ship, which, with 500 passengers aboard, lost their bearings and ran aground during foggy weather on a holiday trip from San Francisco to Los Angeles.

The passengers were removed safely and brought to Los Angeles Saturday night by the new United States cruiser Louisville, which, undergoing her acceptance trials, was 140 miles distant when the first SOS was heard and raced to the Harvard's aid.

The Tugs Homer and Peacock and the coast guard cutter Tamaroa stood by the Harvard throughout the night and were joined Sunday by the tug Commissioner from San Pedro.

With a government inquiry due to start at San Pedro Monday officials of the Los Angeles Steamship company, operator of the Harvard, assigned no cause for the wreck. There is no way of determining at present, they said, the amount of damage.

Members of the Harvard's department of the Harvard were brought to Los Angeles by the Louisville. Captain Louis B. Hillsinger of the Harvard, his officers, engineers and part of the deck crew are still aboard the ship, most of the crew of 117 having been transferred Saturday to the Tamaroa.

Massed Colors Tribute to War Dead

Hendrix Graduates Three From Hope

Jas. Montgomery, Jeanette Witt, Lorraine Whitehurst, Get Degrees

Three Hope students will be graduated from Hendrix College, Conway, Monday afternoon at the college's forty-seventh annual commencement exercises. All of them will receive the bachelor of arts degree.

James Montgomery and Misses Jeanette Witt and Lorraine Whitehurst, all of whom finished Hope High school four years ago, are the graduates.

The student body of Hendrix recently presented a handsome blanket to Montgomery in recognition of the part played by the college's Profile, student newspaper of which he was editor, in the successful fight to retain a strenuous four months' attack against the proposed title of "Trinity." At the meeting of the state college press association last April, the Hope student's paper also won trophies for the sweepstakes, editorial page, and sports page.

Miss Witt, who attended Hendrix for three years after taking freshman work at Lindenwood college, recently resigned as the Hendrix May queen at the college's annual Mother's Day celebration. She held a number of prominent campus offices and was the most popular co-ed in school last semester.

Miss Whitehurst entered Hendrix last fall after spending three years at Henderson Teachers college. Last month she won the co-ed singles tennis title of the college. During the agitation over the name question, she prepared a clever poster ridiculing "Trinity" for a group of women students who desired to see the old name unchanged.

Montgomery attended the Conway institution for four years.

Negro Breaks Local Jail; Is Returned

Jesse Poe, Held to Grand Jury on Charges of Robbery

Jesse Poe, negro, was returned to Hope Sunday by officers Allen Shipp and J. C. Turner. Poe had escaped from the city jail here Saturday night by sawing the bars to the outer door of the jail with a hack saw which had been smuggled in the jail to him by friends on the outside.

The negro was given a hearing in Justice Rooker's court Saturday on a charge of burglary and grand larceny, in connection with a robbery at the home of E. M. McWilliams on East Third street. He was bound over the October grand jury, under $500 bond, which he was unable to make Saturday.

Officers had planned to take him to Washington to the county jail, but the negro said he was ill and was being held in the city jail for medical treatment.

In the jail at the time of the break were Calfin Tuffeller, Carl Guthrie and Clark Williford, three white youths, being held for questioning. Tuffeller and Williford came to town and reported to the officers, while Guthrie and Poe escaped. Guthrie has not been apprehended.

Two-Gun Crowley Condemned to Die

Young Slayer of Policeman Will Go to the Chair July 5

MINEOLA, N. Y.—(AP)—Francis (Two-Gun) Crowley, youthful bandit, was sentenced Monday to be electrocuted July 5 for slaying Patrolman Frederick Hirsch a month ago.

Young Crowley was captured after a sensational siege of his girl friend's apartment last month by 150 policemen.

The police battle outside the tall apartment building was the most thrilling in the history of America's law-enforcement officials, machine guns and bombs being directed against the killer's quarters for hours before he capitulated. Crowley's capture attracted nation-wide attention, and some censure was directed at the New York police for their "motion picture tactics" in staging a small war outside the criminal's nest—but they got their man.

Cashier Bound, $90 Taken From Bank

Bank Official Overcome by Bandits Who Break Through Window

MIDLAND.—Judge Finn, cashier of the Bank of Midland was bound and gagged by two unmasked men who robbed the bank of approximately $90 shortly after 11 Sunday night. Finn, who lives in the rear of the bank building was sitting in his room when the men broke the window and covered him with pistols. Having bound him, they searched the room and bank, securing the money which had been deposited too late Saturday to be placed in the vault. The men made no attempt to break into the vault, Judge Finn said, in his report to Sheriff John B. Williams of Sebastian county, at Fort Smith. Sheriff Williams left Fort Smith with several deputies to search for the men.

One of the robbers was described by Finn as being short, heavy set and dark complexion.

Balky Mule Causes Farmer's Death

W. T. Stuart, Suffers Broken Neck When Head Strikes Post

MENA.—(AP)—William T. Stuart, aged 45, farmer living near the Oklahoma-Arkansas line west of Hatton, was killed instantly Saturday morning while attempting to harness a mule. He suffered a broken neck.

When Stuart attempted to place harness on the mule, he was knocked down, his head striking a post. The accident was witnessed by Marvin Robert, an employee, who reported to Sheriff John E. Joplin. No inquest was held.

Stuart lived alone, but is believed to be survived by two daughters at Ouachita.

Presbyterians To Try Smith Again on Heresy Charge

Case Remanded on Errors By the Synod of Arkansas

VERDICT DEFENDED Synod Representative Says No Error Occurred in Final Result

MONTREAT, N. C.—(AP)—The case of the Rev. Hay Watson Smith, Little Rock pastor charged with holding unsound theological beliefs, was remanded by the Synod of Arkansas for retrial by a commission of the Presbyterian Church in the United States.

This action was taken after the Rev. Marion A. Boggs, Hot Springs, representing the Synod of Arkansas, admitted that the synod had erred in the methods followed, at the first trial when Dr. Smith was cleared of the charges.

The Rev. Mr. Boggs did not admit, however, that the synod was in error in returning a verdict of not guilty.

Cotton Prices Hit Year's Low Mark

Market Performance Erratic for Week Ending May 29

MEMPHIS.—(U. S. Dept. Agriculture)—The cotton market during period May 22-29 witnessed rather erratic price movements with quotations May 27 reaching the lowest point touched so far this season, when the average of the 10 markets for mid-land 7-8 inch stood at 7.94 cents.

Demand for spot cotton was said to have been rather better with more interest directed to the higher grades of cotton in lengths 7-8 to 1 1/2 inch inclusive. The average price mid-7-8 as compiled from quotations of the ten markets on May 29 was 8.09 cents, compared with 8.54 cents May 22 and 14.95 cents on corresponding date a year ago. Reported sales in the 10 markets for the week amounted to 22,515 bales, compared with 25,422 week before, and 13,778 for same week last season. Trade interests now are watching new-crop conditions very closely.

According to the Weather Bureau, for the week ending May 26 the weather was unfavorable for cotton crop because of the persistent coolness. In Texas, field work made good progress but cool nights during most of the week were unfavorable. In the central states of the belt, progress of cotton was mostly poor, only fair, though somewhat better in southern sections.

According to Bureau of Census there were operated in the U. S. at some time during the month of April 26,600,000 cotton spinning spindles, compared with 26,500,000 for March and 28,800,000 for April 1930. According to the N. Y. Cotton Exchange Service, world consumption of American cotton for first 9 months of this season amounted to 2,300,000 bales compared with 10,200,000 in 1929-30, 11,500,000 in 1928-29 and 12,000,000 in 1927-28. According to the same source consumption of American cotton by Great Britain from August 1 to April 30th amounted to 714,000 bales compared with 1,100,000 last season and 1,400,000 the season before. Exports to May 29 this season amounted to about 6,300,000 compared with 6,400,000 for like period the year before. Germany leads in takings of American cotton so far this season with Japan and Great Britain in second and third places respectively. However, both Germany and Great Britain have taken less American cotton so far this season compared with previous season, whereas exports to Japan are nearly 200,000 bales larger than a year ago.

Southern mill centers said there was a fairly good inquiry for mid-land and better in lengths 7-8 up to 1 1/2 inch inclusive. Inquiry for carded yarns was said to have improved but buyers were trying to purchase at prices below those asked by spinners. It was said notwithstanding the low dry goods quotations they were not generally attracting business. According to Bureau of Census there were active in the cotton growing states at some time during April 17,100,000 cotton spinning spindles, compared with 17,500,000 for April 1930.

New England mill centers said buying by mills during past week continued at a very low level and reduced to what might be considered minimum quantities and only for immediate mill requirements. There was some inquiry it was said for certain lengths of staple which however said to be in strong hands with mills ideas of prices considerably below low holders ideas. According to Bureau of Census there were operated in New England states during April 8,600,000 cotton spinning spindles, compared with 9,800,000 for the same month last season.

Crump Enemy Gets Governor's Trial

Memphis Boss Pushes Impeachment, But Opponent Will Preside

NASHVILLE, Tenn.—(AP)—Senator A. B. Broadbent, of Clarksville, was Monday elected speaker of the Tennessee senate, from which position he would succeed to the governorship in the event of the impeachment of Governor Henry H. Horton.

Senator Broadbent received 24 of the senate's 33 votes to succeed Scott Fitzhugh of Memphis, who resigned when the article of impeachment against Horton was presented to the house last week.

Congressman E. H. Crump, of Memphis, leader of the Horton ouster movement, is an avowed opponent of Broadbent.

'Texas' Guinan Is Peeved at French

Night Club Hostess Is Barred From Giving Show In Paris

HAVRE, France.—(AP)—Far from the bright lights of Broadway, "Texas" Guinan, traveling night-club hostess, Sunday night was reported near collapse from the strain resulting from detention in the Hotel Transatlantique here which is being patrolled by French police and detectives.

The entertainer remained behind closed doors in her little room with three narrow beds and barred windows, and refused to see visitors.

"She is all worn out with strain and has a splitting headache," said "Bunny" Weldon, director of the Guinan chorus and the party's spokesman. "She can't see anybody."

Meanwhile, Director Mourier of the generale surete police at the ministry of the interior Paris, announced Miss Guinan and her troupe of 30 girls must leave France without putting on their performance in Paris.

He added that pleas of Miss Guinan's friends had failed to alter the government's decision that they should not remain in France.

Rigid restrictions no longer have been placed on the movements of the party, which hitherto had been allowed comparative freedom.

Detectives at the hotel doors Sunday refused to allow the girls to leave the building, which is maintained as a lodging place for deportees and emigrants. A trip to church, originally scheduled as Sunday's only outing, was cancelled.

With the last hope fading that permission will be given to enter Paris, members of the troupe were becoming irritated with their routine life behind the barred windows and their breakfast at 8 a. m., to which they are summoned by a gong.

"I could stand it if these bells were not forever clanging," one of the girls wailed, expressing the general sentiment of the party, which huddled in fur coats as a protection against the cold, rainy weather.

"I don't care where we go so long as we go some place," another dancer moaned.

Elks Will Initiate One on Monday Night

The Hope Elks lodge will meet at 7:30 o'clock Monday night at the local hall, with O. F. Ruggles, exalted ruler, requesting that every member be present. A candidate will be on hand for initiation.

At the Monday night meeting plans will be laid for a flag day service Sunday afternoon, June 14, to which the public will be invited. Mrs. Robert Campbell will charge of the musical program at that time.

Gov. Parnell Out of State, Wilson Nullifies Courts

Executive Again Extends Clemency in Embarrassment Case

TRIED IN UNION CO Wilson Says He Has 'No Apologies' This Time Either

LITTLE ROCK.—(AP)—Acting Governor Lawrence Wilson on Monday granted a full pardon to his brother Fred Wilson, convicted on four counts of grand larceny in Union county in March.

A Union circuit court jury fixed prison sentences of one year for each of the four charges to run consecutively. Wilson had not been sentenced formally and had not served any of the sentences.

The lieutenant governor is acting chief executive in the absence of Governor Parnell, who left Saturday for French Lick Springs, Ind.

Commenting to newspaper men on the pardon of his brother, Lieutenant Governor Wilson said he had "no apologies to offer."

He said he issued the pardon in account of his grief-stricken mother.

Some History

Lieutenant Governor Wilson is identified in these parts as the official who granted an indefinite furlough to William R. Atkins, cashier of the defunct Bank of McCaskill, the same day he arrived at the penitentiary to begin a sentence for embezzlement.

The lieutenant governor had "no apologies" at that time either. Hope Star was the first newspaper in the state to identify the William R. Atkins furlough as freeing the Hempstead county banker, and it compelled Little Rock officials to release for publication the list of signers of a petition for clemency, incidentally revealing that a much larger list had been filed at Little Rock opposing clemency.

Cripple Loses Life In Ouachita River

Louis Pickering of El Dorado Drowns; Body Not Recovered

EL DORADO.—Louis Pickering, aged 46, a cripple, was drowned Saturday night in the Ouachita river, near Camden, when he fell into the water while attempting to get into a boat on the Calhoun county side of the river.

Pickering had started to cross the river in response to a call from friends on the west bank. They were unable to rescue him when he fell from the boat. The body had not been recovered at midnight.

Pickering is survived by a brother, Sam, also of El Dorado. They moved here from Mississippi about three years ago.

One Killed, Four Wounded in Fight

Poor Marksmanship Is Said to Have Averted Other Deaths

NEW YORK.—(AP)—One man was killed and four wounded, two critically, in a shooting in the Bronx in three days.

Only poor marksmanship police said averted a massacre as three gunmen entered the 149th street place at 2:30 a. m. and blazed away at a group of 12 men.

Police said the shooting was the result of a flare-up over small grabbing rackets. The dead man, identified as Genaro Atoroli, 20, was the chief object of the attack because of a dice game he conducted in a candy store until recently. Police said they found dice, but no money in Atoroli's pockets.

Those wounded were Michael del Guidice, 23, Louis Stalder, 23, Michael Kohnen, 19, Joseph Mella, 36, of all the Bronx. Del Guidice and Kohnen were sent to a hospital.

Poison Suspected In Death of 19 Men

Coroner Investigates Affairs of Mrs. Summers
Back 25 Years

CHICAGO. (AP)—Nineteen deaths are being investigated in connection with the poison murder charges against Mrs. Margaret Summers, rooming house proprietor, Coroner Herman Bunden said Sunday.
The deaths were those of lodgers and relatives of the woman, who is already accused of four poison slayings.

The additional names were obtained in a canvass Sunday of five homes in which Mrs. Summers has lived since she came to Chicago from Effingham, Illinois. Each death, officials said, was entered in the woman's family Bible, which was confiscated.
Further examinations, the coroner said, may establish whether the deaths of these other persons were accomplished by poison inasmuch as the fatal poison found in the bodies of the men Mrs. Summers is accused of killing was of a variety which remains after disintegration.
Deaths of two more of Mrs. Summers' husbands, bringing the total of her fatal marriages to five, have been disclosed, the coroner said, and as a result the inquiry has been carried back to a period of 25 years ago. They were Stanley Jones and James Lynch.
Investigators are seeking to learn if Mrs. Summers insured these men as she had the others.
The three other husbands whose

Carlson Grins as He Is Given Death in Slaying

CHICAGO—(P)—Twenty-nine days after slaying Traffic Officer Anthony Kelly in crowded Michigan avenue, Carl Carlson, alias Frank Jordan, Rock Island, Illinois, was found guilty Friday night and sentenced to die in the electric chair.

Carlson, who also fatally wounded Policeman Patrick Durkin, grinned when the jury returned its verdict. He was still grinning as he was led out of the court room.

The conviction was believed by court authorities to establish an all time record for Chicago justice.

HOOKS AND SLIDES

Rain, Rain, Go Away!

YOUR Uncle Wilbert Robinson, master mind of those Brooklyn Balmness Boys, looked up from his seat on the bench the other day where he had been reading his mail. What was the matter with the Robins?

"The rain," replied Uncle Robbie. "The rain gives the writers too much free rein."

But, did he think Brooklyn yet would reign?

"We'll rain some base hits in a few of these ball parks yet," was Uncle's reply. "Say, where do you fellows buy that stuff that makes you write such charming pieces for the papers? Some reporter had a story the other day about President York reading the riot act to the team. Threatening to suspend 'em. It wasn't so."

"And some bright fellow put out a story about me complaining about the new ball. Just silly. Those rainy day stories may be good reading, but they don't help us any."

"We're gettin' started now, though. Hey there, Babe, how many hits today?"

Gabby's Pitchers

GABBY STREET gave us the cue on his ball team when he sent Dizzy Dean to Houston. Street thinks he has a pitching staff without peer in the National League. Why not? Watch the way the pitchers rotate—Rhem, Grimes, Haines, Johnson and Hallahan, with Lindsay and Derringer for relief work. During the first five weeks of the season, Street did not vary his starting pitchers, and most of them finished the games they started.

"Derringer and Lindsay are two of the best relief pitchers I ever laid eyes on," says the Old Sarge. "Lindsay was a big help in putting us up there last year. But we went along more'n a month without having a pitcher knocked out of the box. How many clubs can say that?"

DID YOU KNOW THAT—

CHURCHILL DOWNS must hold an especial charm for Twenty Grand... as a two-year-old the Grand set a mile record there at 1:36... and this year set a new Derby mark for the mile and a quarter, 2:01 4-5... the fastest time on record for the Derby distance is 2:00, made by Whiskbroom II at Belmont... but trainers and followers of thoroughbreds generally do not credit the Whiskbroom mark... it was made in 1913 when the horse was 6 years old and carrying 139 pounds... Sarazen, however, still holds an edge on Twenty Grand... carrying 124 pounds in the International Special at Latonia in the fall of 1924, racing against Epiphany, Mad Play, Princess Doreen and others, Sarazen ran the mile and a quarter in 2:00 4-5.

Contentious?

JUST for the sake of argument how will Twenty Grand act when he goes against Jamestown and a couple of other fair hides at Belmont in the Stakes June 13? Jamestown, as a two-year-old ran third to Gallant Fox and Equipoise in point of earnings. Gallant Fox, of course, was far and away the best meal ticket, but Equipoise and Jamestown had a close battle for second honors, Equipoise winning $156,835, while Jamestown earned $151,925. Jamestown won six out of seven starts, placing in the other, among his triumphs being the Belmont Futurity, the Saratoga Special and the U. S. Hotel Stakes.

In the Belmont Futurity, Jamestown took the measure of Equipoise and Mate, running the Widener Course (about seven-eighths of a mile, straight) in 1:20 3-5. Watch Jamestown!

St. Louis 7-2, Cincinnati 5-7, Chicago 5, Pittsburgh 0.

FELT BAD MOST OF THE TIME

Lady Says She Was Weak, Sickly and In Pain, But Cardui Helped Her.

Mrs. J. R. Carroll, who lives on North Atlantic Street, Tullahoma, Tenn., says that the Cardui Home Treatment helped her after she had been suffering five years.

"I felt bad most of the time," she writes, "not being able to be up but very little. I was weak and sickly. I suffered from headache, and my back and limbs hurt a great deal. I was very nervous and excitable. Any little noise would scare me. I suffered like this for five years. 'I happened to read about the Cardui Home Treatment, and I made up my mind to try it. After I had taken my first bottle of Cardui, I began to improve. When I had taken six bottles, I was a well woman—and have been in fine health since.'"

Cardui helps women to health. Get a bottle of Cardui from your druggist, and see what this well-known medicine will do for you. Contains no harmful drugs, and does not interfere with other medication.

More Hogs Needed on Arkansas Farms

Quality of Hogs on Farms of State Are Much Improved

More hogs are needed on Arkansas farms and can profitably be produced for an additional home meat supply and market purposes when grain feed and grazing crops are grown for them. The census figures show that the number of hogs on farms in the state has decreased considerably during the past ten years. This was expected and is the result of the effort which has been made to obtain quicker and more economical production of the pork, states T. Roy Field, University of Arkansas College of Agriculture, Extension Service.

The quality of hogs on Arkansas farms has greatly improved during the past ten years. It is the exceptional farmer that keeps a hog longer than six to ten months for meat purposes now, where formerly it was a common practice to keep the meat hogs until they were two or three years old. Ten years ago, it had not been demonstrated in Arkansas that a ton of pork could be made from a litter of pigs in six months. There have been many such demonstrations by county agents for the past several years.

The high prices for hogs following the war gave farmers a chance to sell many of the old rough woods hogs at a good price. There was a very large amount of such hogs out of the state in 1920. But the woods were full of them when the census was made early in that year.

The amount of pork and lard on farms, and not the number of hogs, is of most importance. This is being produced more effectively and at much less cost than 10 years ago and farmers are benefiting as a result. It is possible to still further increase their benefits and make the amount of pork and lard produced per farm much greater than it has ever been with a further increase in farm profits.

Lindberg's Boyhood Home Becomes Memorial Park

LITTLE FALLS, Minn.—(P)—Lindbergh park, a 90-acre tract of wooded hills sloping to the waters of the Upper Mississippi river, will be opened to tourists in July.

Acquired by the state, the park will preserve the boyhood home of Col. Charles A. Lindbergh.

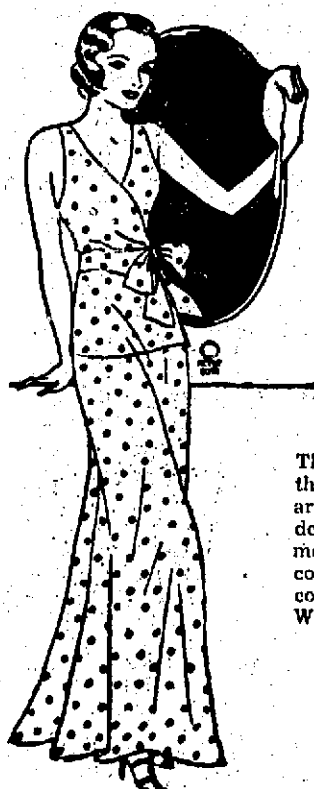

Piles All Gone

Without Sales or Cutting
Itching, bleeding, protruding piles go quickly and don't come back, if you remove the cause. Bad blood circulation in the hemorrhoidal veins causes piles by making the affected parts weak, flabby, almost dead. Salves and cutting fail because only an internal medicine can actually correct these conditions. Dr. J. S. Leonhardt discovered a real internal Pile remedy. After prescribing it for 1,000 patients with success in 960 cases, he named it HEM-ROID. Ward & Son say one bottle of HEM-ROID Tablets must end your Pile misery or money back. Adv.
